

Assistant Chief Constable Police Service of Northern Ireland (PSNI)

Salary: £88,470 -£103,218 plus benefits

The Northern Ireland Policing Board is seeking to appoint an Assistant Chief Constable to join the PSNI Chief Officer Team.

The Board's vision is to ensure the delivery of an effective, efficient, impartial, representative and accountable policing service which secures the confidence of the whole community by reducing crime and the fear of crime.

Working as part of the Chief Officer Team you will play a key role in the delivery of a service that is community based and community focused.

With at least 2 years senior management level experience within a police service at Superintendent level or above and a proven track record in achieving results, you will possess the range of personal skills and qualities necessary to operate at this level.

To request an application pack please telephone 02890408519, email colleen.watterson@nipolicingboard.org.uk, or write to Secretariat, Northern Ireland Policing Board, Waterside Tower, Clarendon Dock, Belfast BT1 3BG.

Closing date: 12 noon on Friday 24th July 2009.

The Northern Ireland Policing Board is committed to equality of opportunity in employment and welcomes applicants from all suitably qualified candidates, irrespective of religious belief, gender, disability, age, race, political opinion, marital status, sexual orientation or whether or not they have dependants.

As Roman Catholics and women are currently under-represented in the senior ranks of the PSNI, applications from Roman Catholics and women would be particularly welcome. Appointment will be made strictly on merit.
