

Chief Constable Police Service of Northern Ireland

£183,954 plus attractive benefits

The Northern Ireland Policing Board is seeking to appoint a Chief Constable who will bring exceptional skills and professional ability to this challenging and demanding role.

With a proven track record at Chief Constable or Deputy Chief Constable level, you will be responsible for providing strategic leadership to a service of 7,500 officers and 2,600 support staff.

Accountable to the Board on all aspects of policing in Northern Ireland, you will work closely with the Board in setting the future priorities for policing over the next 5 years. The Board's vision is to ensure the delivery of an effective, efficient, impartial, representative and accountable policing service which secures the confidence of the whole community by reducing crime and the fear of crime.

As Chief Constable you will be responsible for translating this vision into day to day policing practice in partnership with key stakeholders in the community and across the criminal justice sector in Northern Ireland.

To request an application pack please telephone 028 9040 8519, email colleen.watterson@nipolicingboard.org.uk, or write to Secretariat, Northern Ireland Policing Board, Waterside Tower, Clarendon Dock, Belfast BT1 3BG

Closing date for applications:
19 June 2009 at 12.00 noon.

The Northern Ireland Policing Board is committed to equality of opportunity in employment and welcomes applicants from all suitably qualified candidates, irrespective of religious belief, gender, disability, age, race, political opinion, marital status, sexual orientation or whether or not they have dependants.

As Roman Catholics and women are currently under-represented in the senior ranks of the PSNI, applications from Roman Catholics and women would be particularly welcome. Appointment will be made strictly on merit.
