

The Policing Board's Role

The Northern Ireland Policing Board supports and administers the Custody Visiting Scheme. This includes recruiting volunteers for the scheme through open advertising and competency based interviews.

The key skills we look for in volunteers are:

- n Concern for the welfare of others;
- n The ability to work as a member of a team;
- n Impartiality and confidentiality;
- n Effective communication skills, and;
- n Time to carry out visits and attend team meetings.

To prevent any possible conflict of interest, police officers, police support staff, people involved in the criminal justice system and members and staff of the Policing Board cannot become custody visitors. We make sure that the custody visiting teams are as representative as possible in terms of community background, gender, age and so on.

The Policing Board's Community & Human Rights Committee carefully monitors the custody visitor's reports on a month-by-month basis. This includes looking at the treatment of detainees in terms of Code C of the Police and Criminal Evidence (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 (PACE), human rights provisions, and the PSNI Code of Ethics.

NORTHERN IRELAND INDEPENDENT
CUSTODY VISITING SCHEME REPORT ON

CUSTODY VISITING

IN TYRONE/FERMANAGH DURING 2005/2006

This leaflet is about the work carried out in 2005/2006 by the Tyrone/Fermanagh Team of Independent Custody Visitors. It also contains general information about custody visiting and details of how to contact the Northern Ireland Policing Board if you are interested in this voluntary work.

Background

Custody Visitors are volunteers from the community who make unannounced visits to police custody suites to check on the welfare of people being held in custody. They look, listen and report on what they find. In this way custody visiting means that people unconnected with the police or the criminal justice system can inspect and report on how arrested people are dealt with by the police and the conditions in which they are held.

There are five custody visiting teams covering Northern Ireland. These teams are:

- n Antrim
- n Belfast
- n Down/Armagh
- n North West
- n Tyrone/Fermanagh

Custody Visiting has been taking place in Northern Ireland since 1991, and was made statutory by the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 2000.

The work of the Tyrone/Fermanagh Custody Visiting Team during 2005/2006

There are currently 8 people in the Tyrone/Fermanagh team and they carry out visits in pairs to custody suites in the following police stations: Cookstown, Dungannon, Enniskillen, Omagh and Strabane.

During 2005/2006 the Tyrone/Fermanagh Custody Visiting Team made 203 visits to custody suites throughout the Tyrone and Fermanagh areas, as shown in the following table:

Station	No. of visits
Cookstown	42
Dungannon	45
Enniskillen	42
Omagh	37
Strabane	37
Total	203

There were 124 detainees in custody during these visits and visitors saw and spoke to 24 (29%) of the detainees. Custody visiting is based on the consent of the detainee to see the visitors. Some 34 (41%) of the detainees did not want to see the custody visitors and the remaining 25 detainees were not seen for some other reason, for example because they were being interviewed or were asleep.

The custody visitors found that 177 (87%) of the 203 visits were entirely satisfactory and raised no issues about the treatment of detainees or the conditions in which they were being held. Most of the visits they found unsatisfactory were to do with the conditions of detention, such as cleanliness of cells or repairs being needed. Such matters are brought to the attention of the Board and we make sure they are addressed as soon as possible.

In relation to the treatment of detainees, one detainee complained to custody visitors about their treatment. Custody visitors do not investigate complaints - their role is to make sure that such complaints have been referred to the Police Ombudsman for investigation.

During their visits, one detainee asked custody about access to medication and this issue was referred to custody staff for immediate attention. They also met three detainees who spoke very little English and found that in all cases custody staff had already made arrangements for an interpreter to attend.
