NORTHERN IRELAND INDEPENDENT
CUSTODY VISITING SCHEME REPORT ON

CUSTODY VISITING

IN BELFAST DURING
2004/2005

This leaflet is about the work carried out in 2004/05 by the Belfast Team of Independent Custody Visitors. It also contains general information about custody visiting and details of how to contact the Northern Ireland Policing Board if you are interested in this voluntary work.

Background

Custody Visitors are volunteers from the community who make unannounced visits to police custody suites to check on the welfare of people being held in custody. They look, listen and report on what they find. In this way custody visiting means that people unconnected with the police or the criminal justice system can inspect and report on how arrested people are dealt with by the police and the conditions in which they are held.

There are five custody-visiting teams covering Northern Ireland. These teams are:

- Antrim
- Belfast
- Down/Armagh
- North West
- Tyrone/Fermanagh

Custody Visiting has been taking place in Northern Ireland since 1991, and was made statutory by the Police (Northern Ireland) Act 2000.

The work of the Belfast Custody Visiting Team during 2004/2005

There are 14 people in the Belfast team and they carry out visits in pairs to the custody suites in the following police stations:- Antrim Road, Grosvenor Road, Musgrave Street and Strandtown.

During 2004/2005 the Belfast Custody Visiting Team made a total of 268 visits to custody suites throughout the Greater Belfast area, as shown in the following table.

Station	No of visits
Antrim Road	72
Grosvenor Road	49
Musgrave Street	74
Strandtown	73
Total	268

There were 428 detainees in custody during these visits, and the custody visitors saw and spoke to 226 (53%) of the detainees. Custody visiting is based on the consent of the detainee to see the visitors. Some 72 (17%) of the detainees did not want to see the custody visitors and the remaining 130 detainees were not seen for some other reason, for example because they were being interviewed or were asleep.

The custody visitors found that 225 (84%) of the 268 visits were entirely satisfactory and raised no issues about the treatment of detainees or the conditions in which they were being held. Most of the visits they found unsatisfactory were to do with the conditions of detention, such as cleanliness of cells or repairs being needed. These matters are brought to the attention of the PSNI and the Policing Board so that they can be addressed as soon as possible.

In relation to the treatment of detainees, eight detainees complained to custody visitors about their treatment on arrest. Custody visitors do not investigate complaints – their role is to make sure that they have been referred to the Police Ombudsman for investigation.

The Policing Board's Role

The Northern Ireland Policing Board supports and administers the Custody Visiting Scheme. This includes recruiting volunteers for the scheme through open advertising and competency based interviews.

The key skills we look for in volunteers are:

- concern for the welfare of others;
- the ability to work as a member of a team;
- impartiality and confidentiality;
- effective communication skills, and;
- time to carry out visits and attend team meetings.

To prevent any possible conflict of interest, police officers, police support staff, people involved in the criminal justice system and members and staff of the Policing Board cannot become custody visitors. We try our best to make sure that the custody visiting teams are as representative as possible of the community.

The Policing Board's Community Involvement Committee carefully monitors the custody visitors' reports on a month-by-month basis. This includes looking at the treatment of detainees in terms of Code C of the Police and Criminal Evidence (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 (PACE), human rights provisions, and the PSNI Code of Ethics.
