

Join the Policing and Human Rights debate online?

The Policing Board will be launching its 7th Human Rights Annual Report on Friday 3 February 2012 at the University of Ulster, Magee Campus, Derry/Londonderry. It will be a 'lets talk' styled event to encourage debate and discussion on how human rights contributes to the delivery of a good policing service.

You are invited to join in the debate by going online to www.wimps.tv or send a Tweet using the tag #HRights. You can contact us before, during or even after the event.

The event will be streamed live from 11:10am at www.wimps.tv by Public Achievement.

As well as highlighting findings from the Report, this event will give the invited audience and panel members, which will include Board Members, the Chief Constable and community representatives from the Derry/Londonderry area, a chance to have their say on human rights and policing. It will give key stakeholders the opportunity to have an informed debate on this important issue.
