Why are you processing my personal information?

Data protection legislation states that, a public body may process personal data as necessary for the effective performance of a task carried out in the public interest such as a consultation.

We have identified our lawful basis for processing your personal information as being Article 6 (e) of the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UKGDPR) (Public Task as the processing is necessary for us to perform a task in the public interest).

Where you have provided us with special category data, such as health, religious or ethnic information the lawful basis we rely on to process it is article 9(2)(j) of the UKGDPR, and Schedule 1 part 1(4) of the DPA 2018.

Do you share my personal data with anyone else?

The personal data collected in our consultations will not routinely be shared outside of the Northern Ireland Policing Board (NIPB).

Please note, however, that we may be required to share your data to meet our legal or public function requirements, to pursue debt, for fraud, or crime prevention and detection purposes, or in your vital interest.

We may receive Freedom of Information and Environmental Information Regulations requests for third party personal data. We have a legal obligation to process any personal data we hold when considering requests under these laws. In most cases we will consider whether disclosure would contravene principle (a) of the GDPR.

Do you transfer my personal data to other countries?

The Board does not transfer personal information overseas.

How long do you keep my personal data?

We will retain your data in line with our Retention and Disposal Schedule.

Do we use Data Processors?

We often use Citizen Space to gather information on our behalf. It will be clear if we are using Citizen Space. Any data collected by Citizen Space for the Board is stored on UK servers. Their Privacy Policy can be viewed at https://consultations.nidirect.gov.uk/privacy_policy/.

What rights do I have?

- You have the right to object to the processing in specific circumstances.

In addition:

- You have the right to obtain confirmation that your data is being processed and access to your personal data.
- You are entitled to have personal data rectified if it is inaccurate or incomplete.
- You have a right to have personal data erased and to prevent processing in specific circumstances.
- You have the right to 'block' or suppress processing of personal data in specific circumstances.
- You have the right to data portability in specific circumstances.
- You have rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling.

How do I exercise my rights or complain if I am not happy?
