

OCTOBER ACCOUNTABILITY SESSION

At the October accountability session, questions focused on PSNI procedures with regards to sexual and domestic violence in the aftermath of the Sarah Everard murder, as well as questions on mother and baby homes, community policing and MOT delays.

You can keep up to date with all the issues at the meeting here:

Watch the next Public Accountability Meeting on Thursday 4 November 2021 at 12:30pm

CONTACT
MANAGEMENT VISIT

Independent Member Michael Atkinson is pictured with Ch Supt Wendy Middleton at the Board's visit to the PSNI Urban Contact Management Centre, where they got an in-depth look at how the Centre functions, and what happens after a member of the public dials 999 or 101.

WELCOMING NEW OFFICERS

Our former Chief Executive, Amanda Stewart, attended the latest PSNI Attestation, welcoming the newest officers to the Service. Find out more about upcoming PSNI recruitment here: www.joinpsni.co.uk

NEW CEO

We welcomed our new Chief Executive Sinéad Simpson on 4 October 2021 and bid a fond farewell to Amanda Stewart.

COMMUNITY SAFETY ENGAGEMENT

This month, Board Members met with senior members of PSNI's Community Safety Department to get an overview of their structure, current work and objectives.

PARTNERSHIP COMMITTEE

This month, the Partnership Committee received an update from PSNI on Policing Plan Measure 2.2.1, victim and service user satisfaction as well as a presentation from NICCY on Child Rights Impact Assessments.

BALMORAL SHOW

Thanks to all those who stopped by our stand at the Balmoral Show! Our staff and Board Members Dolores Kelly MLA and Michael Atkinson enjoyed chatting to show-goers. See you next year!

POLICE OMBUDSMAN MEETING

Our Chair Doug Garrett welcomed Marie Anderson to the Board prior to a meeting with Members to discuss a range of issues including the recently released Police Ombudsman report on Spit and Bite Guards.

NEW HUMAN RIGHTS
MONITORING FRAMEWORK

Our Human Rights Monitoring Framework sets out in detail the standards against which the performance of the police in complying with the Human Rights Act 1998 is assessed by the Board.

OUR MINUTES