YOU ARE THE CHAMPIONS

The Scamwiseni Partnership launched a great little initiative to enable young people to help prevent scams. Scamwise Champions is geared towards almost 16,000 members of the six uniformed organisations across Northern Ireland.

The Partnership has provided a resource booklet so group leaders can organise challenges and activities and reward the young people with Scamwise badges and certificates.

This is a creative way to ensure young people have the information to not only spot a scam themselves, but tell others. Get more information at:

YOUR VIEWS, OUR RESPONSE

Last year, we asked for your opinions on the future of local policing in Northern Ireland in the Local Policing Review Consultation. We'll be publishing our response on Tuesday 5 November. If you'd like to be there, get in touch with us on 028 9040 8500.

POLICING BOARD MEMBERS GAVE THEIR SUPPORT TO INCREASE IN POLICE RESOURCES

"As a Board, we are fully supportive of the Chief Constable's bid to secure additional resources for policing here and for some of that investment to be made in local areas."

In recent years, as a result of austerity, we have peeled back too far. We now need to build resourcing back up in light of current pressures and demands."

Anne Connolly, Chair
Northern Ireland Policing Board
