POLICY OWNER	Director of Resources
HPE REFERENCE NUMBER	340239
VERSION NUMBER	2
DATE OF LAST REVISION	February 2019
DATE OF NEXT REVIEW	January 2020

SECTION 1 | DOCUMENT PURPOSE & BACKGROUND

The Northern Ireland Policing Board (the Policing Board) manages the police pension scheme in Northern Ireland. The Pensions (Northern Ireland) Order 1995 requires the Policing Board, as manager of the police pension scheme, to have in place formal dispute resolution arrangements.

These arrangements allow interested parties (listed at Section 2 of this document) to have their complaints formally investigated and to receive a written response from the Policing Board. This process is called the Internal Dispute Resolution Procedure (IDRP).

Complaints under the Policing Board's IDRP policy can relate to;

- an injury on duty award;
- an ill health or deferred pension;
- a survivor award;
- an adult dependant award;
- forfeiture of any of the above; and/or
- a child allowance

The purpose of this document is to explain the Policing Board's IDRP process as well as formalising existing arrangements in line with the statutory requirements under the Pensions (Northern Ireland) Order 1995.

SECTION 2 | WHO CAN MAKE AN IDRP COMPLAINT?

Complaints under the Policing Board's IDRP policy can be submitted by the following;

- Serving PSNI police officers;
- Former RUC/PSNI police officers;
- Widows, widowers, civil partners or adult partners of a deceased RUC/PSNI officer;
- A child or dependent of a former RUC/PSNI officer.

IDRP is available to current, active members of the Police Pension Scheme and/or the Injury on Duty Award Scheme. IDRP is also available to prospective members of these schemes. Applications can also be made on behalf of minors and made/continued in the event of an officer's death.

APPOINTED REPRESENTATIVES

If you wish for an appointed representative to manage a complaint on your behalf the Policing Board require Appointed Representative Form (Annex A) to be completed and returned. This form must be completed before the Policing Board can release any information we hold about you to another person. Examples of appointed representatives include a staff association member or a solicitor.

SECTION 3	HOW DO I MAKE AN IDRП COMPLAINT?
------------------	---

The Policing Board's IDRП policy contains two stages.

STAGE 1

An application should be made in writing for your complaint to be processed under IDRП Stage 1. Your complaint should contain as much detail as possible including any supporting information on the disagreement on which you are seeking a determination. You should also include your full name, address, date of birth and force number and clearly mark your application as a request under Stage 1 IDRП. Your finalised application should be marked for the attention of the Director of Resources who will consider all Stage 1 IDRП complaints.

In addition to the information above, an appointed representative acting on behalf of a complainant must also submit the Appointed Representative Form located at Annex A of this document.

Stage 1 decisions made by the Director of Resources will be taken within 40 working days of the date your Stage 1 application is received by the Policing Board. This decision will be communicated within 15 working days thereafter.

In instances whereby the Director of Resources cannot comply with this timeframe, an interim reply will be issued to explain the delay and to confirm when a full reply can be expected.

STAGE 2

If you are not satisfied with the decision made by the Director of Resources at Stage 1, you have the right of appeal to the Policing Board's Chief Executive. This is Stage 2 of the IDRП process. Your Stage 2 appeal must be submitted within six months from the date on which you received the Stage 1 decision from the Director of Resources.

Your Stage 2 appeal should be made in writing and it must clearly set out why you are dissatisfied with the Stage 1 decision made by the Director of Resources. You should also include your full name, address, date of birth and force number and clearly mark your application as a request under Stage 2 IDRП. Your finalised application should be marked for the attention of the Chief Executive.

Stage 2 decisions made by the Chief Executive will be taken within 40 working days of the date your Stage 2 appeal is received by the Policing Board. This decision will be communicated within 15 working days thereafter.

In instances whereby the Chief Executive cannot comply with this timeframe, an interim reply will be issued to explain the delay and to confirm when a full reply can be expected.

The Chief Executive's reply will confirm to what extent the Director of Resources' Stage 1 decision has or has not been replaced. The Chief Executive will also set out the reason for any such decision.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Where a conflict of interest arises and the Chief Executive is unable to consider a complaint under this policy an independent assessor, for example the Policing Board's Pension Advisor, will be appointed.

SECTION 4 HOW IS MY COMPLAINT PROCESSED?

At Stage 1, a report detailing the facts and chronology of your case will be prepared by Policing Board officials. This report will also consider the points raised within your complaint. This report will then be passed to the Director of Resources who will consider this together with all information held by the Policing Board in respect of your complaint. The Director of Resources will use this information to reach a decision on all points raised within your complaint.

At Stage 2, the Chief Executive will consider all information considered at Stage 1 together with your supplementary Stage 2 appeal papers and any other relevant information. The Chief Executive will use this information to reach a decision on all points raised within your appeal application. The Chief Executive will issue a response including direction on any actions to be taken.

SECTION 5 WHAT ARE THE IDRPs TIME LIMITS?

Stage 1	Your Stage 1 complaint must be submitted to the Policing Board within six months of the date on which the subject matter of your complaint occurred.
