

POLICING MATTERS SEMINAR SERIES

The Northern Ireland Policing Board continues to host a series of lunchtime seminars to facilitate discussion around a number of key policing issues.

Drawing on expert opinions from across the policing and criminal justice sector and other sectoral leads, the seminars provide an opportunity to explore issues and discuss how policing policy and practice can best respond to meet the challenges ahead.

The sessions are held in the Policing Board's offices at Waterside Tower, 31 Clarendon Road, Belfast BT1 3BG from 12-2pm.

If you can't attend in person, you can join the debate and discussion via livestream on our You Tube Channel @policingboard #nipblive #policingmatters

.....

Please let us know if you wish to attend by emailing rsvp@nipolicingboard.org.uk.

Car parking is not available at the Board. However, a car park is located at the entrance to Clarendon Dock. Waterside Tower is a short walk from the City Centre.

Supporting Policing Transformation

Society is changing, crime is changing and policing must reform and transform to adapt to the new demands being faced in service delivery.

Mike Cunningham
Chief Executive Officer of the College of Policing will share perspectives on the challenges for policing and the types of initiatives that need to be taken to future proof policing.
